I. O. O. F. Fair—Showered With—We are sorry to learn that the Fair at Beckel's Hall during the past week did not prove remuneratory. It is quite enough to say that the Daughters of Rebecca have taken the Fair in hands, and it will be continued this week under their charge. Every feature to which any one could object has been removed, and we hope that this week a proper degree of interest will be manifested in the matter. The object is a good one, and we hope the "Daughters" will receive a real benefit during the week—Let the good citizens of Dayton patronize the Fair at Beckel's Hall this week. Remember the "Daughters" now have charge of the institution.

THE CAMPBELL.—This excellent Ethiopian Troupe will give their first concert at Huston Hall on to-morrow evening. We have before stated that they are the real Campbell Minstrels; and they propose to make that claim good tomorrow night. The Campbell are now on their regular spring tour, and intend giving the people of the west and south a "taste of their quality," prior to returning to their Opera House 444, Broadway, N. Y., where they are permanently established. We are assured that we will be treated to a very superior entertainment to-morrow evening. Let the troupe have a fair hearing.

THE mushroom hunters are now engaged in travelling over the woodlands hereabouts, in search of their favorite—mushrooms. We were going to say; but we do not want to get up a discussion, and will say—fungi. It is most too soon; and then again, novices will be apt to make mistakes in their selections, which may result disastrously to human life. We see no need to our exchanges of persons who have been poisoned to death by eating an article, cross between the mushroom and toad-stool, and nearly resembling the former. Too much caution cannot be exercised in this regard.
Novices in the business should not fail to offer the contents of their baskets to those who are thoroughly posted—life and death depend upon this.

THE Manager of the Union Telegraph office in this city is not in the habit of "blowing"; but we will just observe that business is transacted in the best possible manner through his office. We have frequently heard it remarked by persons who have remained here a short time, and have sent messages from Mr. Kier-stead's office, that they have received replies more promptly here than at any office they have ever before employed. Our business men are aware of this, and hence the prosperity of the Union Office, corner of Main and Third streets.

A neat little paper entitled the "Versailles Exchange" appears upon our table asking an exchange. We are indebted to a line in one of the advertisements for the names of the town and State in which it is printed. We suggest to the publishers that Versailles, Indiana, is not so widely noted that the mere mention of the name would indicate its exact location.— We are quite unable to ascertain from the matter in the "Dispatch" what is its devotion, but we infer that it is "neutral in every thing."
Its local news is well given.

VALUABLE FURNITURE.—We call the particular attention of house keepers to the advertisement of "valuable and well kept Furniture," etc., at Auction, on next Thursday. We know the furniture is what it is represented to be, and we advise our friends to be present at Christopher's Auction room on the day. Bargains can be had on extra nice furniture.

Remember that the Odd Fellows' Fair will be in charge of the Daughters of Rebecca this week—a sure guarantee that it will be conducted in the best possible order, and that it will be a delightful place in which to spend an hour or two every evening. There will be new attractions each evening.

Notwithstanding the bad weather of this spring, the health of our citizens has been, and is better than usual at this season of the year.
The bills of mortality at our Cemeteries conclusively prove this.

The farmers are improving the pleasant weather with double force, and putting out the corn crop. There is now a good prospect for the corn planters, for which all are thankful.— Just in proportion as our agricultural friends thrive, will we poor denizens of the towns.

The brick manufacturers hereabouts are very busy engaged in getting up a supply of that necessary article, and if the pleasant weather will continue for a week or two, builders will have little cause to complain of the supply.

Langdon's books and lines are the attrac- tion just now among anglers. They have the best fishing outfit ever before offered in this city. Go and get a "rig."

Snively, at the Montgomery Flour and Feed Store, has a very nice article of family food, and other articles in the line. A hint to housekeepers is enough; they all like good bread.

If you haven't got that suit yet, go to Brenne's and get it. He has the goods, and can make them up within an inch of your life.— While we take it, it is close enough to suit any body.

The Shells have a vast number of bran new attractions at their elegant room, corner of Main and Third streets—every thing new for mind and body. They can supply almost any demand made upon them in their line. Their store is a curiosity.

It is most interesting to our distant read- ers to know that we are enjoying delightful weather at the present writing; and we will state that such is the fact. This we send out gratifying; "hoping that these few lines may find," etc.

The St. Louis Democrat, already a mam- moth sheet, has been considerably enlarged, and appears in an entire new outfit. This speaks well for the business of the establishment, and for the business of St. Louis. Such changes are pretty sure indications of prosperity wherever they occur.

The street sprinklers have again resumed their vocations upon the principal streets. It is refreshing to know that in this time of general rise in the market, that the dust will be made an exception.

The warm weather seems to have dried up the Station. The "cogs" now get their bitters and retire to out of the way haunts.

Judge Baggett's Court will open to-mor- row, for the purpose of trying criminals in his jurisdiction. A Jury has been summoned, and the probabilities are that the balance of the week will be consumed in trying State cases.

The Urbana Citizen says: The fruit in this region has escaped injury so far. The prospect is good for a large crop of peaches, and the other fruit is certainly safe. Although we have had two or three very cold nights, there were providential circumstances each night which protected the germ from the cold.

The Utica (N. Y.) Herald tells a story of a young lady who had become so attached to a young villain in that place that she used all possible efforts to marry him, notwithstanding the fact that he had just received a sentence of five years in the State Prison. When taken to Auburn to be incarcerated, she followed him, and after repeated solicitations, was permitted to see and embrace him. She declared she will wait till the five years have expired, and then marry her darling in spite of sheriff and keepers.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—In New York, on Thursday last, a young lady named Matilda Sawyer was buried to death by the explosion of a cannibal lamp, while she was sewing on the clothes in which she was to be married in a few days.

LETTERS DOWNS.—Three of the Wellington revenue men given bail for each other in the sum of $500 each at the United States Court, and thus let themselves out of Jail. They are Lorin Wadsworth, Daniel Williams and Eli Boice.

A DOMESTIC WOMAN.—The Yevay News gives an account of a lady who visited that town for the first time on Thursday last, though she has been living within four miles of it for fifty-five years; nor has she ever visited any other town, city or village.

was paid for the relief of the sick, and $12,000 for the education of orphans.

after the 10th of May next.

Judge O'Flynn, postmaster of Detroit, goes out of office May 16th, and will be succeeded, it is said, by Henry N. Walker.

on Saturday evening met with a terrific accident near Port Byron. A telegraph pole had partially fallen in such a manner as to strike directly at the car window. As the train came along the pole struck the window on the north side of the train, making a fearful crash, shattering the glass to fragments, and slightly injuring three of the passengers. The greatest consternation prevailed.

Republican Misrepresentation—Lying.
The misrepresentation of the Republican papers is only equalled by their downright lying.
This only shows plainly to honest men everywhere, that they are about driven to the wall.
We give an instance out of many. That paper of Friday said:

"Mr. Buchanan was last elected to Congress distinctly as a Federalist in October, 1836—long after he had been conspicuous in the support of General Jackson for the Presidency. By no accord of his, has he ever recanted his bitter opposition to James Madison and the War of 1812."

The Cincinnati Enquirer thus nails the lie upon the Tribune's counter:

"On the 23d of April, 1847, President Buchanan wrote a letter to George W. Jones, of Tennessee, in which he stated that his first public speech was made at Lancaster, Penn., in 1814, urging upon his fellow-citizens the 'duty of volunteering their services in defense of their invaded country'; and that in 1814, as a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, he had 'given his support to all measures calculated to aid the country against the common enemy.'" He added exultantly to marching him self, as a volunteer, to Baltimore, when that city was menaced by the British. He then proceeded to say:

"In 1815, after peace had been concluded, I did express opinions in relation to the ravages and conduct of the war, which I very soon after regretted and recanted."

We are to have nothing but misrepresentation and downright lying from the Opposition from this time out to the end of the Chapter. The N. Y.
Century, however, is not quite so hopeful as the Tribune and its ilk. McKim's despairing of succeeding before the people, consoling a revelation of our political economy, and a fall back upon semi-anarchy.

The N. Y. Century recommends that the elective franchise for President and Vice President be taken from the people, and that those National officers shall hereafter be chosen by lot from members of the United States Senate; the Attorney General and Judges of the Supreme Court holding the straws! It conceives that by this plan the time and attention of Congress, Legislatures and the people, generally, will not be taken up with "President making," to the exclusion of every thing else! It also recommends that the Post Office Department of Government be abolished, and that carrying of mail matter be given out to the Express Companies, and to private enterprise; postmasters to be elected by the people, and the patronage now at the disposal of the National Administration be taken from it and placed in the hands of the people, and bestowed by election. As the Century asserts that the working of a constitutional government are preferable to that of this country, we may look for a recommendation from that quarter of an Emperor! Whether "the people" are to pass upon these "recommendations" the Century does not distinctly inform us; but we infer that "political expediency" are depended upon to bring about the state of things projected by the Century. In any event we suppose we may be permitted to watch the progress of events.

The "Daughters of Rebecca" will be night.

NEWS ITEMS.

Nathaniel J. Bird, alias Dr. Hunter, convicted in October, 1853, at the Camden Court (N. J.), of the crime of bigamy, and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment, was liberated from the State prison on Monday last, having been pardoned by the Court of Pardons in November last. Bird's case excited much interest at the time of trial.

The English-born citizens of Cleveland celebrated the anniversary of the patron Saint of England, St. George, on Thursday evening last. Very many Americans joined in friendly conviviality with their brethren of merry England.

The Canadian cents, which have been lately thrown off at the British Mint, possess a remarkable peculiarity. They are not only of one pound, but also standards of weight and measure. One hundred cents weigh exactly one pound, and one cent measures one inch.
